 - B. If either party has been divorced, a dispensation to celebrate the Sacrament must be granted by the Diocesan Bishop of the Armenian Church in accordance with the Canon Law of the Armenian Church. Documentation of the divorce decree (a good photocopy) must be provided to the pastor. The Roman Catholic party should also seek an annulment of their prior marriage if they are to be able to remain in communion with their church.

4. MARRIAGE PREPARATION

A. After securing the desired date and time of the wedding ceremony, the couple shall set up an initial meeting with the pastor for premarital instruction and preparation.

B. The proper instructions regarding a Christian marriage is a necessary component of marriage preparations. It is, therefore, expected that the couple will meet with the pastor as often as necessary. During these meetings, topics relative to their new life together as Christians and members of the Armenian Church family will be addressed.

5. LOCAL LAWS

A. All marriages are to follow the canon laws of the Armenian Church and the laws of the State of Texas. It is the responsibility of the parties to carry out the requirements of the legal authorities by applying for a proper marriage license and presenting these documents to the church office ten (10) days prior to the wedding ceremony.

6. THE BEST MAN

The major Sacramental witness of the wedding ceremony is the Brother in the Cross/Khach Yeghpayr, who is likewise the Best Man. He will hold a hand cross over the heads of the couple during a portion of the religious rite. This privilege of honor is allowed provided he himself is a baptized member of the Armenian Orthodox Church which is offering the blessing upon this couple or another Orthodox Church. If there is a situation where a non-Armenian Church member is requested to assume the role of Best Man, this is allowed provided that another male witness in the wedding party, who is himself a baptized member of the Armenian Orthodox Church or another Orthodox Church, can participate as the Khach Yeghpayr. The pastor is to be informed if this situation applies. The Maid/Matron of Honor must also be a Christian. These two/three individuals will join the bride and groom at the holy altar. All other attendants will take their places in the front pews.

7. THE REHEARSAL

A. The date and time for the wedding ceremony rehearsal will be determined by the pastor in consultation with the bride and groom.

B. The pastor, or his designated representative, shall have complete charge of the rehearsal.

C. Only members of the wedding party and immediate family need to attend the rehearsal.

D. It is the responsibility of the couple to determine the order of the procession.

E. It is strongly recommended that a facilitator/prompter who is not a member of the wedding party be assigned to coordinate the procession on the day of the wedding so that everything will flow smoothly. He/she should attend the wedding rehearsal and will be given a script of the procedures for the ceremony by the pastor.

F. It is essential that all participants in the wedding rehearsal arrive at the church at least 15 minutes prior to the time set for the rehearsal so that it will begin on time.

G. If you are later than 15 minutes beyond the scheduled time of the wedding rehearsal, we cannot assure that the rehearsal will take place. You will then be responsible for your own arrangements. PLEASE BE PROMPT!

8. DECORATION OF THE SANCTUARY

A. Requests for adorning the church with flowers, lighting, and other appointments must be approved by the pastor.

B. No furniture or furnishings of the church may be removed from their respective places.

D. Fixtures such as podiums and stands are allowed but should be placed so as not to obscure the view of the altar from the congregation. The pastor must be informed of such props.

E. If flowers are to be taken, the floral arrangements are not to be removed from the altar by any persons other than those designated by the pastor.

F. No decorations shall be nailed or screwed to the furnishings nor attached in any way that would damage the church furniture.

G. The wedding runner/white carpet can be acquired from the florist.

H. Decorations which do not comply with the above will be removed prior to the service.

9. PHOTOGRAPHY AND SOUND RECORDING

Photography and sound recording are allowed within limitations. Still photographers and videographers should exercise caution and maintain decorum during the actual celebration of the sacramental rite. At no time and nor for any reason can the photographer stand on the steps of the Altar or be at the Altar itself.
